II. Overview of June Meeting and Work Group History Carol shared a brief history of the ECC Homeless Services Work Group since there were so many new members. Items that were discussed were some action items that the group agreed upon in June including tabling at the Summer Lunch Program and vouchers or gift cards from local thrift stores for the McKinney-Vento families at CVUSD.	No action required.
III. El Cajon Homeless Services Resource Guide The group reviewed the Homeless Resource Guide created by the Access to Services Solution Group of the East Co. Homeless Task Force. The group had some additions to the guide for additional services. We talked about distribution of the guide and how do we get it out there.	Carol will add resources
IV. Review of Summer Lunch Program There was a discussion about the success of the tabling at the Summer Lunch Program through CVUSD, the parks and the library. Carol shared how many agencies participated and the results of the agencies that reported back. Carol will share the information with CVUSD staff.	Carol will report to CVUSD
V. CVUSD McKinney-Vento and Homelessness The next action item for the group to participate in is to approach local thrift stores for vouchers or gift certificates for the families identified through CVUSD. Jenna shared that she would approach Salvation Army and McAlister Institute. Zac suggested that Carol put together another Google document that the members could select thrift stores that they speak with and the results.	Carol will create a Google document of Thrift Stores
VI. East Co. Homeless Task Force Updates Carol shared the draft of the El Cajon Homeless Pocket Guide that has been created. She will continue to create resource guides and pocket guides for each community with the development of a website to post them.	No action required
VII. Adjournment—Thank you for your dedication towards ending homelessness.
